

Text: 1 Corinthians 12:1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. KJV

The Greek word normally translated “spiritual gifts” is “Charismata” or singular is “Charisma”. These are known as Grace given gifts that Christians receive from the Lord to be used for the building up of the body of Christ.

These gifts of God come in the form of “skills” or “abilities” and “talents”, Common sense tells us that individuals serve most effectively and joyfully when their talents fit their tasks. The happiest and most effective Christian servants are those who are functioning in ministries where they can clearly recognize some sense of calling, some degree of skill, some level of enthusiasm and vision, and feel competent to serve.

Is there a connection between “spiritual gifts” and “natural abilities”? This study has stirred a good bit of controversy in religious circles. Some contend there is no connection, whereas others believe that the two can be, and frequently are, related. It is clear that God has a hand in shaping and molding our lives according to Palms 139:13-16. We must consider the idea that natural talents and abilities are “God Given”, yet not “God devoted” until conversion occurs and one receives the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Titus 3:4-7.

If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old has gone, the new has come.” Abilities and skills that were once, “natural and carnal” are transformed so that they become “spiritual and holy”.

Our next step is to identify our new abilities or skills called (spiritual gifts) that the Lord has given us.

Let us go through a list of spiritual gifts; they are not in any order. Let’s discover the ones that you have.

1. Did you know that you can have more than one or several gifts that can be developed. Rom 12:5-8
2. Hospitality – a willingness to open their homes & offer lodging, food and fellowship cheerfully to other people. Gen 18:1-15
